Jack Sudbury

"For the heart of a friend is the one thing he'd prize
As the life shortens and twilight descends;
It's the last boon he'd ask, as he finished his task
That he live in the hearts of his friends."

In Memoriam

The Class of 1958 presents

The Greystone

Annville-Cleona Joint High School
Annville, Pennsylvania

SKETCHY'S

To the new school - about to rise, we wish you the best of everything in the years to come

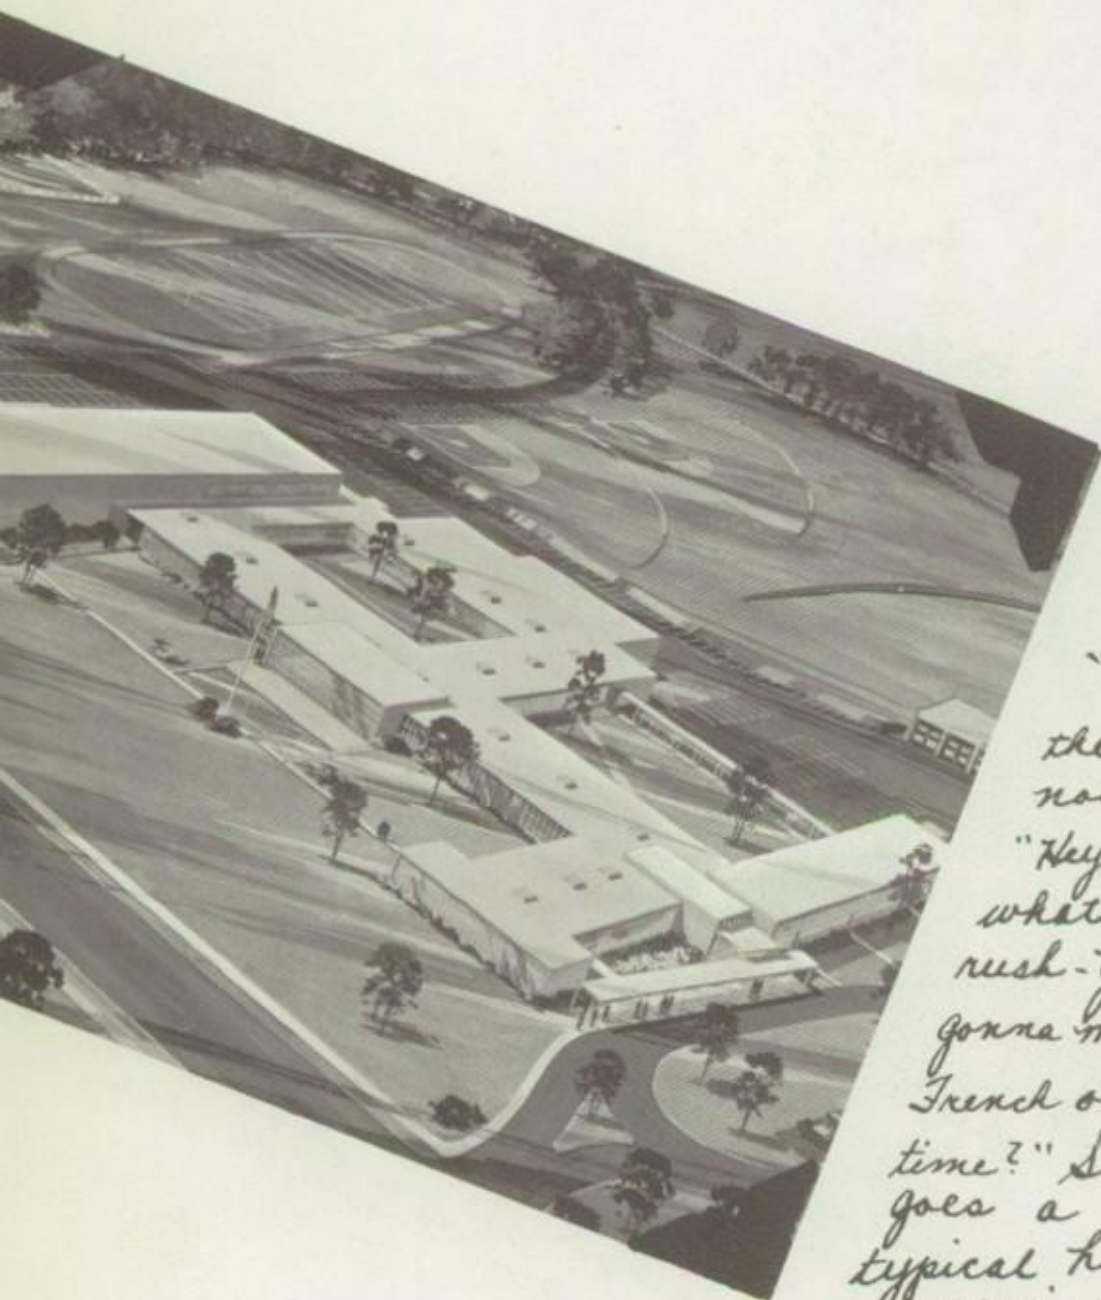

Though you're not so old, you are destined to become the "old school" but to us you'll always be our favorite Alma Mater.

It's not such a big town and it's not such a small town - it's just our town.

SCRAPBOOK

"Cut
the noise,"
"Hey,
what's the rush - You gonna make French on time?" So goes a typical hall
passing.

The sun
comes out,
the flag
goes up
and school
is in session for another day.

B-E-A-T
BEAT ELCO!
 We did it too!

Could this be the relay meet, county meet, or any other meet? You're right!
 it's again! No more!

Mr. Victory says, "We've gone about as far as we can go!"

School's
 about over We'll probably make it now. What's next? Maybe these will give us an idea.

Me and Suzanne Mary
 just takin' it easy and talkin' things
 over.

Familiar scene? Sure! It's the gang down at the Co-Ed.

"your attention
please - for your 12:55 announcements!"

Capable announcers-

Dick Rhine
Bob Bollinger
Don Hauer

Our commercial section.
"Busy?"

Hey,
academics!
Make
sure you spell that word
right!

Seniors - and those cars
are all standing still, too!

"Hustle, or you'll miss your bus!"

Each 12th grader has many fond memories
of Mrs. Barnhart who left this year because of illness.

Now there is nothing left except to say Goodbye.
To say Farewell to school, to teacher, to friends To leave behind our books and lessons and Walk bravely into the future. We are glad to go We are happy to be moving forward
But we will miss you
And we will remember.

Inevitable
lumps in tight
throats as Commencement comes and goes. Perhaps tomorrow a Lincoln, a Washington, or an Eisenhower will come from this year's seniors. But whether or not they become famous they will be real men and women and will serve their country well.

Dedication

We, the class of 1958, respectfully dedicate our yearbook to . . .

our helpful, efficient class advisor,

fine physical education teacher, thoughtful counselor and excellent basketball coach, but most of all a friend, a man to be respected and upheld as an example for our lives . . .

Mr. Harold C. Brandt

FACULTY

Board of Education

ADMINISTRATION

Merle L. Keim

Supervising Principal Merle L. Keim, as co-ordinator of the school's many functions, is our top administrator. His many duties have been added to by the weight of his responsibilities in regard to our new building program. Although his work is usually done behind the scenes, he keeps Annville-Cleona School system running smoothly.

Mrs. Doris Markey

Mrs. Mary Miller

Miss Donna Gay

Richard H. Gingrich

Richard H. Gingrich, our high school principal, is the most sought-after man in the building. Though he always has a multitude of things to be done, he never lacks the time to give personal attention to each student who needs him. Thanks is always in order to this man, who is capable of solving the problems of A.H.S., be they large or small.
